7th Asia Pro Bono Conference Program

25th to 27th October 2018, Hong Kong

DAY 1
Time	Sessions
8.00 - 9.00	Registration
8:45-9.00	Welcome
9.00 – 10:00	OPENING CEREMONY  The Honourable Geoffrey Ma Tao-li, Chief Justice, Court of Final Appeal, Hong Kong
	Introduced by May Tai, Herbert Smith Freehills  The Honourable Teresa Cheng, Secretary of Justice, Hong Kong
	Introduced by Justin Tang, Linklaters
10:05 – 11.00	PLENARY  The quest for identity and justice.  Many people around the world are prevented from accessing legal and social protections because they lack proof of their legal identity. According to the World Bank, there are an estimated 1.5 billion people, the majority of them living in Asia and Africa, who are unable to prove their identity. In this session, participants will learn about the global initiatives that aim to support development of large scale identification systems. The panel will explore key issues, challenges and ways pro bono actors can engage to ensure access to legal identity for all, grounded in local realities and experiences of ordinary people.  Sumaiya Islam, The Open Society Foundation  Khalid Hussain, Council of Minorities, Bangladesh  Jelvas Musau, UNHCR  Kay McArdle, PathFinders  Maalini Ramalo, DHRRA Malaysia
11.00 – 11:30	Break
11:30 – 11:35	MY STORY  Introduced by Annalie Chow  CHERILYN TAN  First-hand accounts by individuals transforming access to justice in Asia

DAY 1
Time	Sessions
11:35 -	PLENARY Towards a More Tech-Aware Pro Bono Community
12.30	This plenary will raise awareness of current technologies used to improve the public's access to justice. It will also cover how technology is being applied to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the work of pro bono legal practitioners. What are the legal and ethical implications of the adoption of these technologies? This session is designed to assist practitioners better formulate their tech-enabled practice management plan to enhance their pro bono practices.
	Sebastian Ko, Epiq
	Verlebie Chan, Microsoft
	Cherilyn Tan, Asia Law Network
	San Ng, The Asia Foundation
	Mark Blick, Diginex
12.30 - 1.30	LUNCH
1.30 - 2:45	CONCURRENT SESSIONS
	A Inspiring the Profession
	In this session, the presenters will share their experience of the ways in which professional associations, law firms and international organisations can inspire lawyers to take responsibility for community legal needs in diverse pro bono cultures.
	Richard Yip, Denis Chang's Chambers
	Philip Dykes, Hong Kong Bar Association
	Irum Ahsan, Asian Development Bank
	Andrew Dale, Ropes & Gray
	Nirmala Masilamani, Indonesian Bar Association
1.30 - 2:45	B Refugees and resettlement
	This session will engage participants in a dialogue about the current state of forced displacement globally and how legal service providers can show moral leadership. Led by an international panel of experienced practitioners working in the region, the session will consider different approaches to the refugee problem and ask some tough questions, for example, should there be borders? This session will map and identify current and potential legal service partnerships, collaborations and initiatives in Asia.
	Lynette Nam, Justice Centre Hong Kong
	Jirim Kim, GongGam
	Matthew Bersani, Shearman & Sterling
	Emma Dunlevie, Russell Kennedy Lawyers
1.30 - 2:45	C A Beginners Guide to Pro Bono in Asia
	The what, why, who, where and how of pro bono for firms and corporate counsel. What are the basic steps? How do you decide who you can assist? How do you manage pro bono in a small law firm? What are the challenges and opportunities for in-house counsel setting up a pro bono program?

DAY 1
Time	Sessions
	John Corker, Australian Pro Bono Resource Centre
	Tan Cheow Hung, Beacon Law Corporation
	Trishna Mohan Kripalani, Thomson Reuters Foundation
	Mary Ho, UBS AG
	Leontine Chuang, PILnet
2.45 - 3.00	Break
3.00 - 4.00	CONCURRENT SESSIONS
	A Glocalizing Pro Bono
	Establishing a global and local framework for a pro bono practice requires structure, consistency of approach, partnerships and a narrative. But one size does not fit all. Local circumstances don't always sit comfortably alongside global intentions. So how do we successfully 'glocalise' a pro bono program? Do we need to switch the focus to 'lobalising'? In this interactive session, our expert panel will discuss all these issues and more, and help you create a take-home checklist to activate within your organisation.
	Dan Creasey, King & Wood Mallesons
	Marlene Halpern, Center for Reproductive Rights
	Catherine Husted, Allen & Overy
	Vicky Man, Herbert Smith Freehills
	Mohammed Rakinul Hakim, DLA Piper
3.00 - 4.00	B Global Pro Bono and the United Nations
	How can the UN Treaty Bodies help increase access to justice and equality? This session will define the roles of the Treaty Bodies and how Treaty processes can be utilized. The presenters will provide examples of recent pro bono matters where the UN and pro bono providers have collaborated, such as UNICEF's Global Study on Children Deprived of Liberty. The session will also focus on the Sustainable Development Goals and the connectivity between the UN Treaty Bodies and achieving the Sustainable Development Goals.
	Catriona Martin, DLA Piper
	Changho Kim, Human Rights Now
	Grace Agcaoili, UNICEF
	Sara Malkani, Center for Reproductive Rights
3.00 - 4.00	C Hidden in plain sight - Women as collateral damage in international development
	The development sector is not immune to exploitation. This session will focus on building robust systems and controls within charities and international organisations to ensure the integrity of service delivery, having regard to the #metoo movement and recent high profile cases.

DAY 1
Time	Sessions
	<ul> <li>Urszula McCormack, King and Wood Mallesons</li> <li>Stephen Tsui, Oxfam</li> <li>Micaela Cronin, Hagar International</li> <li>Josh Heiliczer, EY</li> <li>Priyanka Chirimar, Action Against Prohibited Conduct</li> </ul>
Various times between: 5:30 pm - 8:30	Networking Receptions for Interest Groups  1. The Difference Pro Bono Can Make: A Look at Immigration Detention and International Legal Professionalism - organised by The Global Pro Bono Bar Association and UNHCR and kindly hosted by Morrison & Foerster.
	<ol> <li>How lawyers can provide LGBT+ focused advocacy and support - organised by HK GALA (the Hong Kong Gay and Lesbian Attorney Network) and DLA Piper and kindly hosted by DLA Piper.</li> <li>Drugs, crime and punishment: women and the need for access to justice - organised by the International Drug Policy Consortium and kindly hosted by Linklaters.</li> </ol>
	4. Pro Bono: The Next Generation - organised by Singapore Law Society Pro Bono Services and kindly hosted by Shearman & Sterling.
	5. How men and lawyers can support the women's movement - organised by PILnet, HER Fund and Stephenson Harwood and kindly hosted by Stephenson Harwood.

DAY 2
Time	Sessions
8.30 - 9:00	Updates and Conference News
9:00 – 9:25	PRO BONO GUIDE LAUNCH
	Pro Bono Legal Work in Hong Kong - A Guide for In-House Counsel
	Lin Shi, President, Association of Corporate Counsel (Hong Kong)
9:25 - 9:30	MY STORY Introduced by Annalie Chow
	DAVYD WONG
	First-hand accounts by individuals transforming access to justice in Asia
9:30 – 10:30	PLENARY
	Pro Bono for Migrant Workers
	This session will identify some of the key access to justice challenges for migrant workers facing legal and economic exploitation. This session will discuss specific impactful pro bono collaborations that are being utilised to end this exploitation.
	Archana Kotecha, Liberty Global/Asia
	Douglas MacLean, Justice Without Borders
	Susan Clear, Macquarie Group Foundation
	David Hillard, Clayton Utz
	Jelita Pandjaitan, Linklaters
10.30 –11:00	Break
11:00-11:05	MY STORY Introduced by Annalie Chow
	WALLY SUPHAP
	First-hand accounts by individuals transforming access to justice in Asia
11:05-12:30	PLENARY
	Advocacy, Influence and Breaking Through:
	This session will engage participants in a timely and important discussion of the business and human rights movement. Specifically, it will showcase how the United Nations, businesses and pro bono lawyers have and can continue to collaborate to make a difference.
	Surya Deva, UN Working Group on Business and Human Rights
	Martin Rogers, Davis Polk
	Susan Clear, Macquarie Group Foundation
	Antony Crockett, Herbert Smith Freehills
12:30 – 1:30	Lunch
1:30 – 2:30	CONCURRENT SESSIONS

DAY 2
Time	Sessions
	A Investing in Justice
	Finding funding for access to justice work can be difficult for pro bono practitioners, yet it is a vital skill to gain, or at least understand, for anyone interested in growing or sustaining legal assistance. In this session we will consider how to better communicate the need for justice programs, discuss how to identify and engage with potential funders and also check out new law firm and NGO models for funding legal services.
	Annette Bain, DLA Piper
	June Lim, Eden Law
	Wendy Morrish, BABSEACLE
	Yasmin Batliwala, A4ID
1:30 - 2:30	B Emerging Pro Bono Communities in the South Asia Region
	This session brings together pro bono legal service providers, and policy leaders from a number of South Asian jurisdictions to engage in a dialogue about their experience of scaling up initiatives which assist in delivering access to justice. The aim of the session is to share varied experiences across the South Asia region in an interactive forum and trace a roadmap for strengthening the emerging pro bono culture in the region. There will be a focus on a variety of divergent themes including pro bono related legal services for prisoners; child victims of sexual abuse; the strengthening of paralegal efforts; restorative justice for minority communities and the role of non-traditional actors in supporting access to justice.
	Sumaiya Islam, The Open Society Foundation
	Mariam Faruqi, i-Probono
	Trishna Mohan Kripalani, Thomson Reuters Foundation
	Ram Tiwari, Nepal Institute of Justice
	Haya Zahid, Legal Aid Society, Pakistan
1:30 - 2:30	C Future Pro Bono Advocacy
	This session will focus on a variety of ways and means to promote the need and use of pro bono related to alternative dispute resolution spheres. This will include a vibrant discussion of different forms, models and manners where pro bono services can function, or be employed, to increase and improve access to justice for indigent and vulnerable parties in alternative dispute resolution situations.
	Minh Nguyen, Pacific International Arbitration Center
	Yasunobu Sato, University of Tokyo
	Daryl Chew, Shearman & Sterling
	Donald C. Peters, University of Florida
	Helen Winter, R3SOLUTE
	Sebastian Winter, R3SOLUTE
2:30 - 2:45	Break

DAY 2
Time	Sessions
2:45 -4:00	CONCURRENT SESSIONS
	A People Trafficking and the Financial Sector
	This session will discuss how to coordinate multi-sectoral solutions in the fight against people trafficking. In particular, this session will explore how pro bono initiatives can partner and collaborate with the financial sector to take on a leadership role in this fight.
	Archana Kotecha, Liberty Global/Asia
	Hon. Dennis Kwok, Hong Kong Legislative Councillor
	Nicholas Turner, Clifford Chance
2:45 -4:00	B Paralegals, Pro Bono and Building Legal Empowerment in Asia
	This session will present concrete experiences of collaborations between grassroots paralegals and legal empowerment groups, on one hand, and pro bono legal service providers, on the other hand, in helping communities understand, use and shape the law, and address various justice issues. The session will explore strategic ways of expanding and deepening this collaboration, and identify opportunities for further partnerships.
	Marlon Manuel, NAMATI
	Jargalsaikhan Khunan, Mongolian Bar Association
	Febi Yonesta, Indonesia Legal Aid Foundation
	Maria Generosa T. Mislang, Alternative Law Groups
	Atchara Chan-O-Kul, International Rescue Committee
	Laura Bingham, The Open Society Foundation
2:45 -4:00	C Pro Bono and Ageing Populations
	This session will identify some of the key access to justice challenges faced by ageing populations in Asia, and globally, and demonstrate core comparative examples of the means and ways pro bono legal service providers can help to support this vulnerable population. The session will also focus on strategies to reduce common risks faced by ageing populations.
	Bruce A. Lasky, Lanna Lawyers and BABSEACLE
	Akiko Sato, Kotonoha Law
	Shaun McCarthy, University of Newcastle
4:30 - 5:30	Networking
5:30	Buses to Jumbo Kingdom for the Jumbo Celebration Dinner,
6:30	Jumbo Celebration Dinner – Jumbo Kingdom, Shum Wan Pier Drive, Aberdeen

DAY 3

Time	Sessions
9:00-10:00	ROUNDTABLE
	Infrastructure for the Asia Pro Bono Conference
	The Asia Pro Bono Conference continues to grow momentum across the region and globally.  This is a planning session for all those interested in assisting in further establishing a framework to strengthen and sustain the Conference and its impact, both short term and long term.
	Facilitator: Bruce A. Lasky, Lanna Lawyers and BABSEACLE
10:00-10:05	MY STORY Introduced by Annalie Chow
	ERIC CHEUNG
	First-hand accounts by individuals transforming access to justice in Asia
10:05-11:15	PLENARY
	What does a social justice lawyer look like?
	Hear first-hand accounts from a diverse group of lawyers on their personal journey from law student to social justice lawyer.
	Davyd Wong, Association of Corporate Counsel, Hong Kong
	Sandy Yeung, Sidley Austin
	Hien Bu, The Open Society Foundation
	David Hillard, Clayton Utz
	Muzammil Hairiri, Abdul Raman Saad
11:15- 11:30	Break
11:30 -12:30	Student Pro Bono
	This session will engage participants in a critical discussion of the regional successes and challenges faced in the development of a pro bono culture in law schools in Asia. In doing so it will explore how student led, and student related organizations and initiatives, including the Asian Law Students' Association and the Global Pro Bono Bar Association, are assisting in revolutionizing pro bono culture, throughout the region and globally.
	Helena Whalen-Bridge, National University of Singapore
	Prin Laomanutsak, Asia Law Students Association
	Shaun McCarthy, University of Newcastle
	Jonathan Tan, National University of Singapore
	Robert Houston, Global Pro Bono Bar Association
12:30 – 1:30	Lunch

DAY 3
Time	Sessions
1:30 - 2:45	CONCURRENT SESSIONS
	University Law Clinics
	This session will explore the myriad relationships between university law clinics and pro bono lawyers. It will discuss current initiatives that are helping individuals access legal support as well as reflecting on any obstacles, alternative approaches and new opportunities to grow the network of law clinics with the assistance of pro bono lawyers.
	Lindsay Ernst, University of Hong Kong
	Eric Cheung, University of Hong Kong
	Bridget Burton, University of Queensland
	Udomsak Jiragarnkulgasame, University of Phayao
1:30 – 2:45	Who needs pro bono?
	This session will cover how to find legal need in a community, develop strategies in response and implement them. It will also dive into deeper questions about listening to the voices of marginalised people to ensure that the wants and needs of the clients themselves are being heard? What should be our response if a vulnerable population does not want legal assistance? How ought we build their trust in the law and lawyers?
	Pavina Thephithuck, BABSEACLE
	Jennifer Cheung, Mayer Brown
	Yuval Elbashan, Ono Law School
	Sue Garlick, LawRight
	Patrick Wong, Legal Aid Department, Hong Kong
2:45 – 3:00	Break
3:00 -4:00	Buses to the Asia Society for the Closing Reception,
4:00 -6:00	Closing Reception - Asia Society, 9 Justice Drive, Admiralty

ANBA/ANBA/PERS/PUB/ASIAG/10061989.1